Glossary of Liturgical Terms
Celebration of Mass

Mass: The common name for the Eucharistic liturgy of the Catholic Church. NOTE: Do not use: “Saying Mass: or “Performing Mass.” Instead Use: “Celebrating Mass,” “Concelebrating Mass,” “Celebrating the Liturgy,” or “Celebrating the Eucharist.”

Synonyms: Eucharist, Celebration of the Liturgy, Eucharistic celebration, Sacrifice of the Mass, Lord’s Supper.

Liturgy: The public prayer of the Church.

Entrance procession: Priest, deacon, altar servers, lectors, enter the church or designated place for celebration of the liturgy.

Entrance song/music: The song/music which takes place during the entrance procession.

Veneration of the altar: The reverencing of the altar with a kiss and the optional use of incense.

Greeting: The celebrant greets all present at the liturgy, expressing the presence of the Lord to the assembly community.

Penitential Rite: A general acknowledgment by the entire assembly of sinfulness and the need for God’s mercy.

Gloria: Ancient hymn of praise in which the church prays to the Father. It is used on all Sundays (outside of Advent and Lent), and at solemn celebrations.

Opening prayer: This prayer by the celebrant expresses the general theme of the celebration.

Liturgy of the Word: That section of the celebration where the Scriptures are proclaimed and reflected upon. On Sundays and major feasts, there are three readings:

1. Old Testament selection
2. New Testament selection (from the Epistles)
3. The Gospel reading

Responsorial Psalm: After the first reading there is a psalm as a response to the reading. The response is sung by the assembly and repeated after verses, while a cantor or choir sings the verses of the psalm.

Vespers: A portion of the church’s Divine Office, the daily public prayer encouraged for religious and laity, also called Evening Prayer.

Alleluia Acclamation: This acclamation of praise to God follows the second reading and serves to prepare the assembly for the Gospel.

Homily: The homily (sermon) is a reflection by the celebrant or other ministers on the scripture readings and the application of the texts to the assembled community,

Profession of Faith: The people together recall and proclaim the fundamental teachings of the faith. The Profession of Faith is used on all Sundays and solemnities; also called the Creed.

General Intercessions: A prayer of intercession for all of humankind, for the Church, civil authorities, those in various needs, for all peoples, and for the salvation of the world. The celebrant invites all to pray; another minister announces the petitions and the community responds.

Liturgy of the Eucharist: The section of the celebration when the gifts are prepared and the celebrant proclaims the Eucharistic Prayer.

Blessed Sacrament: The Eucharist, the Body and Blood of Christ, whether at the mass or reserved in a special place in the church.

Preparation of the Gifts: The time in the Mass when the bread and wine to be used in the celebration are brought to the celebrant, usually by representative of the faithful.

Offertory Song: Music used during the procession of gifts to the celebrant and as the altar is prepared.

Incense: Incense (material used to produce a fragrant odor when burned) is used as a symbol of the Church's offering and prayer going up to God.

Washing of hands: An expression of the desire for inward purification.

Prayer over the Gifts: The prayer by the celebrant asking that the gifts to be offered be made holy and acceptable.

Eucharistic Prayer: The prayer of thanksgiving and sanctification. It is the center and high point for the entire celebration.

Preface dialogue: The introductory dialogue between the celebrant and assembly in which all are invited to join in prayer and thanksgiving to God.

Holy, Holy, Holy: The response of the community to the preface and a continuation of the general theme of praise and thanks.

Intercessions: A series of prayers for the Church, the world, the pope, clergy and laity, and the dead.

Final Doxology: A final prayer of praise to God.

Amen: Called the Great Amen, it is the acclamation by the people expressing their agreement with all that has been said and done in the Eucharistic prayer.

Lord's Prayer: The prayer of petition for both daily food (which for Christians also means the Eucharistic bread) and the forgiveness of sins.

Doxology: The response of the people acclaiming the sovereignty of God.

Sign of Peace: Before sharing the body of Christ the members of the community are invited to express their love and peace with one another.

Breaking of the Bread: The celebrant recreates gestures of Christ at the Last Supper when He broke the bread to give to His disciples. The action signifies that in communion we who are many are made one in the one Bread of Life, which is Christ.

Lamb of God: An invocation during the breaking of the bread in which the assembly petitions for mercy and peace.

Communion Song: The music that is used as the consecrated Bread and Wine are distributed to the faithful.

Holy Communion: After saying a preparatory prayer, the celebrant (or other designated ministers) gives communion (The Body and Blood of Christ) to himself and the other ministers at the altar, and then communion is distributed to the congregation.

Prayer after Communion: The brief rite, which consists of the celebrant's greeting to all present, final blessing and dismissal.

Concluding Rite: The brief rite, which consists of the celebrant's greeting to all present, final blessing and dismissal.

Ministers

Celebrant: The one who presides over the assembly and consecrates the Eucharistic sacrament.

Concelebrants: Those priests and bishops who join the celebrant in celebrating the Mass.

Deacon: An ordained minister who assists the celebrant at the Liturgy of the Word and at the altar for the Liturgy of the Eucharist.

Master of Ceremonies: One who assisted in the preparation of the celebration and is present during it to facilitate the movement of the entire rite.

Acolyte: One who assists in the celebration (i.e., carrying candles, holding the pope's/bishop/s staff, etc.)

Cross bearer: The one who carries the cross in the procession (entrance and recessional).

Reader: One who is called upon to proclaim the Scriptures during the Liturgy of the Word.

Cantor: One who sings during the liturgy (i.e., the responsorial psalm).

Leader of Song: The person who leads the community/assembly in the music they sing.

Ministers of Communion: Those who assist in the distribution of communion. NOTE: The term "Extraordinary Ministers" is no longer used. It was changed to "Special Ministers."

Assembly: Those present to celebrate the liturgy. Other terms to use: "The community," "The church (as a people, not a building)," "The Worshipers," "The Faithful" or "The Congregation." Avoid: Spectators, Crowd, and Audience. NOTE: It is the entire assembly (ordained and non-ordained) that celebrates the liturgy of the Mass. Therefore avoid: the pope's Mass, the bishop's Mass, his Mass, etc. all terms which would give the impression that it is only the pope or clergy who celebrate the Mass.

Liturgical Objects

Altar: A table on which the sacrifice of the Mass is offered. It is the center of importance in the place where the Mass is celebrated. Also call the Table of the Lord.

Ambo: The place where the Scriptures are proclaimed; pulpit.

Aspergillum: A vessel or device used for sprinkling holy water. The ordinary type is a metallic rod with a bulbous tip, which absorbs the water and discharges it at the motion of the user's hand.

Celebrant's Chair: The place where the celebrant sits. It expresses his office of presiding over the assembly and of leading the prayer of those present. Avoid: The use of the word "throne."

Processional Cross: The cross carried in the processions.

Bread and Wine: The elements used in the celebration of Eucharist (unleavened bread and natural pure wine).
NOTE: After the Eucharistic Prayer the bread and wine is referred to as the consecrated Bread and Wine of the Body and Blood of Christ.

Tabernacle: Place in the church where the Eucharist or sacred species is reserved.

Chalice: The cup used to hold the wine.

Paten: The plate used to hold the bread.

Ciborium: A vessel used to hold the consecrated bread for the distribution of communion.

Vestment: The vesture the ministers wear.

Alb: The white garment covering one's street dress.

Chasuble: The vestment worn over the alb by priests, bishops and the pope when celebrating the Mass.

Cassock: A non-liturgical, full-length, close-fitting robe for use by priests and other clerics under liturgical vestments; usually black for priests, purple for bishops and other prelates, red for cardinals, and white for the pope.

Surplice: A loose, flowing vestment of white fabric with wide sleeves. For some functions it is interchangeable with an alb.

Dalmatic: The vestment the deacon wears over the alb on solemn occasions.

Stole: The vestment worn around the neck by all ordained ministers. For priests, bishops and pope, it hangs down in front (under the chasuble); the deacons wear it over their left shoulder crossed and fastened at the right side.

Cathedral: The major church in an archdiocese or diocese, it is the seat of the local ordinary.

Miter: A headdress worn at some liturgical functions by bishops, abbots and, in certain cases, other ecclesiastics.

Crosier (pastoral staff): The staff that a bishop carries when he presides at the liturgy.

Lectionary: The book that contains all the readings from the Scriptures for use in the celebration of the liturgy.

Sacramentary: The book used by the celebrant, containing all the prayers for the liturgy of the Mass.

Book of Gospels: The book that contains the Gospel texts, from which the priest or deacon proclaim the Gospel of the day.

Zucchetto: Skullcap worn by the pope (white), cardinals (red), and bishops (purple).

Pallium: Special stole made of lamb's wool worn over the chasuble by the pope and archbishops; it signifies communion of archbishops with the Holy See.

Additional Terms

Apostolic Nuncio: The pope's representative to both the government and to the hierarchy of a given nation; a key person in deciding what names are recommended to the Congregation for Bishops for possible episcopal appointment.

Administrator: One who is officially appointed for a temporary period to perform the duties of the person holding the permanent office. There are diocesan, parish, and apostolic administrators.

Auxiliary Bishop: A bishop appointed to assist a diocesan bishop.

Congregation for Bishops: A department of the Roman Curia, headed by a cardinal. The head of the congregation, called the "prefect," is presently Archbishop Marc Ouellet of Canada. Among the congregation's responsibilities are moderating all aspects of Episcopal appointments; assisting bishops in the correct exercise of their pastoral functions; handling ad limina visits (regular visits to Rome by bishops every five years); and establishing Episcopal conferences and reviewing their decrees as required by canon law. Its membership consists of approximately 35 cardinals and archbishops from around the world.

Diocesan Bishop: Pastoral and legal head and representative of a diocese.

Province: A territory comprising one archdiocese, called the Metropolitan See, and one or more dioceses, called Suffragan Sees. The Code of Canon Law spells out certain limited obligations and authority that the metropolitan archbishop has with respect to the diocese within his province. The United States is divided into 33 ecclesiastical provinces.

Terna: A list of three candidates for a vacant office, including the office of bishop.
