

Live Streaming with Mevo

This document has links to getting started with Mevo, which is a camera you can purchase for about $350 that provides the ability to cut between wide shots and close ups and streams to Facebook and Vimeo simultaneously. The Vimeo stream can be embedded on your website or shared with people via email or other ways via a link. The cost for Vimeo is $75 a month.

<https://help.mevo.com/hc/en-us/categories/360001633871-Get-Started>

<https://help.mevo.com/hc/en-us/articles/360026529071-I-m-New-to-Streaming-What-Best-Practices-Do-You-Recommend->

<https://help.mevo.com/hc/en-us/articles/360026233912-Turn-the-Mevo-Camera-On-and-Off>

<https://help.mevo.com/hc/en-us/articles/360026528471-Connect-To-Mevo-in-Hotspot-4G-LTE-Mode>

<https://help.mevo.com/hc/en-us/articles/360026234632-Connecting-Mevo-to-a-Local-Wi-Fi-Network-or-Router>

<https://help.mevo.com/hc/en-us/articles/360026235032-Streaming-to-Your-Website-Using-Vimeo-and-Mevo>

The Mevo Boost will allow you to plug in audio. <https://shop.mevo.com/products/mevo-boost> and the Mevo case <https://shop.mevo.com/products/mevo-carrying-case>.

Livestream/vimeo support: <https://livestream.com/solutions/worship>