BEREAVEMENT

A. BREAKFAST/LUNCHEONS

“Bereavement Breakfast Tray”

St. Mary, Clinton

315-853-2935

email: stmarysclinton@syrdio.org

This group supplies a continental breakfast on the day of a funeral to the family of the deceased. If the family declines the breakfast a Mass card is purchased for the deceased from the Hearts and Hands group.

“Bereavement Luncheons”

Holy Trinity, Fulton

315-598-2118.

St. Anthony of Padua, Cortland

607-756-9967

Church of the Holy Family, Endwell

607-754-1266

Our Lady of Sorrows, Vestal

607-748-8287

“Lazarus Committee”

Our Lady of Peace, Solvay

315-487-6832

Salads, hot dishes and desserts are provided by parishioners. Often a monetary donation is given by the family. An excellent way to reach out to lapsed Catholics attending a funeral.

“Bereavement Ministry”

St. Anthony of Padua, Cortland

607-756-9967

email: stmaryscortland@syrdio.org

Ministry provides three different menus for funeral luncheons. Special programs are also available for bereaved families.

B. PROCEDURES

“Bereavement Ministry- Preparing for the Liturgy”

Holy Trinity, Fulton

315-598-2118

email: holytrinityfulton@syrdio.org

Church of the Holy Family, Endwell

607-754-1266

email: holyfamilyendwell@syrdio.org

Follows a well thought out form with each family at the death of a loved one. The form includes such things as: the name of the undertaker, readers, hymns, readings, etc.

“Funeral Home Ministry” (for the laity)

Our Lady of Lourdes, Utica

315-724-3155

email: ololutica@syrdio.org

The pastor, working with a committee, developed a ‘step-by-step’ procedural booklet for laity to be able to conduct vigil services at funeral homes and interment services. The booklet includes: names/telephone numbers/addresses of all funeral homes in the area, a selection of New and Old Testament readings, outlines the process to be followed, gives tips on how to conduct the services and how to contact funeral directors and families. Included is a rotating list and phone numbers of parishioners who are part of this ministry.

CLUBS/SOCIETIES/MINISTRIES

A. CLUBS/SOCIETIES

“Hearts and Hands”

St. Mary, Clinton 315-853-2935 email: stmarysclinton@syrdio.org
This group is responsible for setting up social functions each year such as: coffee hours after Mass, bake sales, a First Communion breakfast, an ice cream social in June, a parish picnic in August and an annual Christmas Fair which is a fund raising activity.

“Legion of Mary

St. Patrick, Jordan 315-689-6240 email: stpatsjordan@syrdio.org
Visitations to hospitals, nursing homes, the newly baptized, those who are grieving and they also participate in door-to-door evangelization.

“Men’s Clubs”

- Our Lady of Pompei/St. Peter, Syracuse 315-422-7163
- Holy Name Society”– Holy Trinity, Utica 315-724-7238
- St. James, Johnson City 607-427-5822
- Most Holy Rosary, Maine 607-760-2748
- St. John, Liverpool 315-652-6591
- Holy Family, Syracuse 315-488-3139
- Immaculate Conception, Fayetteville 315-637-9846
- St. Augustine, Baldwinsville 315-638-0585

There is a theme for each meeting, such as “Faith in the Workplace” and facilitators help to foster a conversation among the men.

- Our Lady of Lourdes, Utica 315-724-3155 email: ololutica@syrdio.org
This is a service-based group of about 55 men which meets monthly. In January they sponsor a “Super Bowl” party to watch the game, play cards and eat some traditional Super Bowl fare.

“Mothers’ Club”

Holy Family, Endwell 607-754-1266 email: holyfamilyendwell@syrdio.org
Brings women together to discuss timely family centered topics. Meets monthly to share ideas and fellowship.

“New Life Group”

St. James, Syracuse 315-469-7789 email: stjamesyr@syrdio.org
New Life Group invites all who have ever experienced the loss of a loved one AT ANY TIME (spouse, child, grandchild, parent, grandparent etc.). New Life Group meets every month at St. James Church. The time together includes prayer, sharing memories and joys, along with challenges experienced as a result of loss. Participants are invited to bring a picture and story of their loved one to share with the group.

“Senior Citizens Club”

St. Joseph the Worker, Liverpool 315-457-6060 email: stjoesliverpool@syrdio.org
This organization offers an opportunity for senior citizens to participate in recreational, cultural and educational activities, to promote friendship and engage in community service wherever possible. The activities include: special bus trips to unique places for lunch, attendance at special theater productions in Syracuse and surrounding areas, dinners at special places at Christmas time, etc.

“ St. Michael’s Society & St. Michael’s Lancers”

Holy Trinity, Utica 315-724-7238 email: holytrinityutica@syrdio.org
The “Honor Guards” presiding over Jesus’ tomb during Holy Week and during other notable church activities and Masses.

B. MINISTRIES

“Time and Talent Survey”

Our Lady of Sorrows, Vestal 607-748-8287 email: olosvestal@syrdio.org
St. Margaret, Homer 607-749-2542 email: stmarghomer@syrdio.org
Conducted annually. Parishioners are given the opportunity to hear about the ministries at the parish and how they can join in. Surveys are passed out after the homily and people are invited to use their time and talents for the good of the parish.

“A Creative Way to Involve Parishioners in Ministry”

St. Augustine, Baldwinsville 315-638-0585 email: staugustine@syrdio.org
Parish has a covenant weekend in order to recruit volunteers. When parishioners sign up for a particular ministry, they sign a covenant for one year in that ministry.

“Caring Ministry”

St. John, Camden 315-245-1603 email: stjohncamden@syrdio.org
Through the weekly offerings of the children and a few private donors the ministry has made some homes warm in winter months by paying for a one time purchase of home heating fuel as well as offering assistance with gas for doctors appointments and help with medical bills.

“Coffee Cup Ministry”

Evangelization Office, Mary Hallman email: mhallman@syrdio.org
Holy Family, Syracuse 315-488-3139 email: holyfamilyfairmount@syrdio.org
Jesus was all about spending time with people. As followers of Christ we are called to be people who listen, share and genuinely care about one another. This ministry is a way to answer that call – it is more than a cup of coffee. It is taking the time to listen, talk and respond to another person.

“Elizabeth Ministry”

Holy Family, Syracuse 315-488-3139 email: holyfamilyfairmount@syrdio.org
A service and evangelization ministry focused on the dignity of life and the strengthening of relationships in order to build up the family. Their mission is to offer hope and healing on issues related to childbearing, sexuality and relationships. Also, it evangelizes by connecting recipients to already established spiritual and faith related parish educational programs. (received a 2015 McDevitt Grant)

“Landscaping Ministry”

Holy Trinity, Fulton 315-598-2118 email: holytrinityfulton@syrdio.org
A small group of dedicated parishioners meet every week to mow, weed, plant and maintain the church grounds. This has saved the parish money for several years.

“Mercy Ministry”

St. Anne, Mother of Mary, Mexico
Christ Our Light, Pulaski
Holy Trinity, Fulton email: for all 3 parishes: jschultz@syrdio.org
A leader and team will ensure all those in the parish who are sick or dying are identified and visited (if desired). Hopefully each sick person will have a contact person from the parish who is visiting them. The team of volunteers will inform the priests of any sacramental needs. (received a 2015 McDevitt Grant)

COMMUNICATIONS

“Parish Newsletters”

Our Lady of Sorrows, Vestal 607-748-8287 email: olosvestal@syrdio.org
Produced quarterly and mailed to all families.

“Blessings” (Quarterly newsletter)

Our Lady of Lourdes, Utica 315-724-3155 email: ololutica@syrdio.org
Thanks to the generosity of a parishioner an 8 page color newsletter is mailed each quarter using the envelope list. The purpose of the newsletter is to help acquaint parishioners with staff and volunteers via photos and brief biographies. There is space (not available in the weekly bulletin) for special interest stories involving Lourdes’ families. The pastor provides a column that gives a spiritual insight to the upcoming liturgical season. Also, recent baptisms/marriages/deaths are announced. “Blessings” has helped to make the parish family more personal and welcoming.

“Parish Newsletters”

Immaculate Conception, Fayetteville 315-637-9846 email: icfayetteville@syrdil.org
Monthly newsletter that takes on a different subject. An attempt is made to make the subject thought provoking. It is often geared to encouraging people to become involved. It is sent to everyone on the parish census list, not just to those who attend Mass on weekends. Different advertisers help defray the cost.

“Quarterly Newsletter”

St. Mary/St. Francis of Assisi, Bridgeport 315-633-2561 email: stfrancisbridge@syrdio.org
Parishes send a quarterly newsletter to all registered families. For the past 7 volumes the entire parish community of both worship sites has participated with front page articles outlining what evangelization is and how people can participate through the reflections at the end of each article. Included in the newsletter is a 3 month calendar of faith community events, meetings and workshops. They welcome new parishioners, newly baptized and families of those who have passed away. Also included are articles pertaining to various ministries.

“Church Replacement Sign”

St. Joseph, Sanitaria Springs 607-648-5209 email: bkanepld@gmail.com
A badly deteriorated sign in front of the church that faces 2 major state routes running through the community was replaced to help raise awareness of the Catholic community and display times of Masses, etc.
(received a 2015 McDevitt Grant)

“Live Streaming”

St. Daniel, Syracuse 315-454-4946 email: stdaniels@syrdio.org
St. Joseph, Endicott 607-748-0442 email: stjoesendicott@syrdio.org
Installed live streaming to make the Mass more available to parishioners who cannot be present. Also will be available in the church hall when parents need to take noisy child(ren) out during Mass. Can also be used for Wedding and Funeral services. (received a 2015 McDevitt Grant)

“Parish Directory”

St. Peter/St. Mary, Rome 315-336-5072 email: stpetersrome@syrdio.org
The parishes accepted a proposal from a local professional photographer to create a parish pictorial directory. Each parishioner received a copy of the directory if they had their portrait taken by the photographer. They are not obligated to purchase any of the portraits unless they wish. The directory included the history of the two parishes along with a full list of the members.

“Photo Directory”

St. Mark’s, Utica 315-724-1645 email: stmarks@syrdio.org
St. Margaret, Homer 607-749-2542 email: stmarghomer@syrdio.org
Our Lady of Sorrows, Vestal. 607-748-8287 email: olosvestal@syrdio.org
A parish photo directory is an excellent way to get to know names of parishioners. Especially good for linking and merging parishes. Free parish directories for all parishioners. No cost to parish or parishioners unless extra copies of photos are purchased.

“Contact with College Students”

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, Baldwinsville 315-652-4300 email: stelizabeth@syrdio.org
Every week the pastor writes a personal note to college students who are away and sends it along with the parish bulletin.

“People/Programs in the Parish”

St. Joseph the Worker, Liverpool 315-457-6060 email: stjoesliverpool@syrdio.org
Once a month a page is included in the bulletin highlighting a parish program or person. This helps build community as parishioners read about what makes their parish “tick.”

“Refrigerator Magnets”

St. James, Syracuse 315-469-7789 email: stjames@syrdio.org
St. Mary, Baldwinsville 315-635-5762 email: stmarysbville@syrdio.org
4x6 refrigerator magnets given to parishioners after Mass at Christmas and/or Easter. Has a picture of the church, Mass schedules, Reconciliation times, web page address, telephone #, address of the church, pastor’s name, etc. Cost is around 30 cents each.

“Website Videos ”

St. Peter/St. Mary, Rome 315-336-5072 email: stpetersrome@syrdio.org
Parish records in HD the Christmas and Easter Vigil Masses along with other special services, (ex.Veterans Day Memorial Service) during the year and has them available for viewing on the website at a later date for those who are unable to attend.

“Wednesday E-Mails”

Diocesan Office of Communications email: dcummings@syrdio.org
Every Wednesday Danielle Cummings, Director of Communications, emails a diocesan “Newsletter.” Anyone wishing to receive the mailing may contact the above email address.

“Weekly Youth News Bulletin Insert”

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, Baldwinsville 315-652-4300 email: stelizabeth@syrdio.org
September through June weekly bulletin inserts sharing a number of relevant items and topics involving the “tweens” and teens of the parish.

“Youth Events Calendar”

Our Lady of Sorrows, Vestal 607-748-8287 email: olosvestal@syrdio.org
Printed monthly and inserted in the bulletin. This comprehensive calendar lets families know the dates and times of the various activities for the youth. “Kids Klub” - grades 1-5, Jr. Youth Group - middle school students and Sr. Youth Group - high school students

DINNER IDEAS

“Family Picnic”

St. Peter/St. Mary, Rome 315-336-5072 email: stpetersrome@syrdio.org
The parishes have an annual Family Picnic with hamburgers, hotdogs, salads etc. and rides and games for the children at a local park. Presently at no charge.

“Harvest Dinner”

St. Joseph the Worker, Liverpool 315-457-6060 email: stjoesliverpool@syrdio.org
St. Joseph the Worker started a tradition of sharing a Harvest Dinner with all parishioners the first weekend in November following the Saturday vigil. The parish provides the meat and those attending bring one of their favorite dishes. Sign-up sheets are provided ahead of time to indicate willingness to come, what they will bring and how they can help.

“Pasta Fest”

St. Lucy, Syracuse 315-475-7273 email: stlucys@syrdio.org
Annual spaghetti dinner to raise money to support parish ministries and to build community.

“Parish Picnic”

Our Lady of Sorrows, Vestal 607-748-8287 email: olosvestal@syrdio.org
An annual day-long parish celebration which is typically held in August.

“St. Joseph’s Feast Day”

St. Joseph, Endicott 607-748-0442 email: stjoesendicott@syrdio.org
On the day honoring the Parton Saint of the parish a family celebration is held featuring the ethnic traditions, food, drink, music and dress that highlight their rich heritage.

EVANGELIZATION

A. “CANNED” PROGRAMS

“Awakening Faith”

Pope John XXIII, Liverpool 315-652-6591 email: johnxxiii@syrdio.org
Holy Cross, DeWitt 315-446-0473 email: hcdewitt@syrdio.org
Our Lady of Sorrows, Vestal 607-748-8287 email: olosvestal@syrdio.org

St. James, Syracuse 315-469-7789 email: stjamesyr@syrdio.org
A program of 6 week sessions aimed at nurturing alienated Catholics back to active participation in the life of the Church. This program will be an effort to target the people that come to church on a weekly basis, but are not fully engaged. Statistics show that those people, 70% of the parishioners, come to Mass but are not engaged and internalizing their faith.
(received a 2015 McDevitt Grant)

“ChristLife Series”

St. Margaret Church, Mattydale 315-455-5534 email: stmargmattydale@syrdio.org
The parish began using the “Christlife: Catholic Ministry for Evangelization” program in the fall of 2014. The “Christlife” ministry program is set up as a three-part evangelization process “Discovering Christ”, “Following Christ” and “Sharing Christ”, and has been successfully used nationwide. Each part of the series includes: DVD teachings, small group discussions, prayer and worship, and of course faith, food and fellowship. High School Faith Formation students have joined in the program as part of their studies, and all have embraced the program. (received a 2014 and a 2015 McDevitt Grant)

Divine Mercy, Central Square 315-676-2898 email: divinemercury@syrdio.org
(received a 2015 McDevitt Grant to begin the process)

“Catholicism: A New Evangelization”

Annunciation, Clark Mills 315-853-6138 email: annunciation@syrdio.org
Purchased Fr. Barron’s “Catholicism: A New Evangelization Starter Kit” and a selection of New Evangelization books by prominent authors to distribute to those in parish leadership and catechetical ministry to help them understand the vision of the ‘New Evangelization.’ (received a 2014 McDevitt Grant)

“D3: Discover, Develop, Discipleship

St. Augustine, Liverpool 315-638-0585 email: staugustine@syrdio.org
A multi-phase program to evangelize and encourage engagements in faith, parish life and discipleship by the discovery and sharing of individual gifts and talents. Phase 1 is designed to help those currently in leadership positions to identify their strengths and talents. Phase 2/Year 2 will invite other parishioners to learn how they can develop their own strengths and deepen their faith while living lives of discipleship.
(received a 2015 McDevitt Grant)

“Faith Formation Learning Exchange”

St. Anne, Mother of Mary, Mexico 315:963-7182 email: lbuckley@syrdio.org
A subscription-based service by Vibrant Faith Ministries, “Faith Formation Learning Exchange” empowers partnership between the congregation and home. Parish is provided with the tools and training needed to link the Vibrant Faith at Home program directly to the parish website giving parishioners full access to all of the free resources and activities. (received a 2014 McDevitt Grant)

“Hearts Afire Parish Program”

St. Mary, Baldwinsville 315- 635-3977 email: pastor@stmarysassumption.org
The parish has completed “33 Days to Morning Glory” which is the first part of the “Hearts of Fire Parish Program” and have begun the second phase “Consoling the Heart of Jesus.” The program is based on the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola. For information go to: www.allheartsafire.org

“Symbolon”

www.symboloncatholic.org
St. John the Evangelist, New Hartford 315-732-8521 email: stjohnnh@syrdio.org
An resource for re-evangelizing a parish. Parishioners can learn about their faith by using an online learning community in the comfort of their own homes.

“Welcome Home”

St. Joseph/St. Stephen, Oswego 315-343-2160 email: stjoesoswego@syrdio.org
A process to welcome back lapsed Catholics

B. PARISH DESIGNED

“Billboard Evangelization”

St. Anthony, Endicott 607-754-4333 email: stanthendicott@syrdio.org
It was planned to place billboards strategically around the Endicott area hoping to encourage individuals and families to join the parish. On the 25th of each month a new poster was made and displayed.
(received a 2014 McDevitt Grant)

“Creating Common Ground: Meeting Seekers Halfway”

St. James, Cazenovia 315-655-4871 email: stjamescaz@syrdio.org
For the purpose of this grant, the target population identified were families whose children were enrolled in the Faith Formation programs but did not regularly attend Mass, as well as those who self-identify as a “fallen away Catholic.” Throughout the year the release-time Faith Formation program included a monthly “teaching Mass” for the explicit purpose of educating students about the liturgy. Given the enthusiastic response to this “teaching Mass” Creating Common Ground proposed to live stream these monthly Masses to allow parents, from a remote location, to observe the liturgy which their child was attending. (received a 2014 McDevitt Grant)

“Envisions”

St. Cecilia, Solvay 315-488-3221 email: stcecilias@syrdio.org
Assessed the present and future needs of the parish. Members of the parish engaged in a telephone marathon calling 560 families and inviting them back to the parish.

“Evangelization Booth at Oneida County Fair”

Our Lady of Good Counsel, Verona 315-363-7696 email: ologcverona@syrdio.org
The pastor, along with many parishioners, were present with 30 to 40 pamphlets to explain various aspects of the Catholic Faith and to answer questions.

“Evangelization Breakfasts”

St. Joseph, Sanitaria Springs 607-648-5209 email: bkanepld@gmail.com
Each month there is a Sunday breakfast open to the entire community. It is advertised the week before on a sign outside the church. The opening hymn is Larry Hagan’s “Arise and Evangelize”. The hope is that this will not only draw more people to the parish but also will become a successful fundraiser.

“ Extra Mile Program”

Holy Trinity, Fulton. Christ Our Light, Pulaski St. Anne, Mother of Mary, Mexico
Email for all 3 parishes: jschultz@syrdio.org

The program asks each parishioner to make one small commitment in 1 to 5 categories: prayer, evangelization, sacraments, study or service. The commitment is for 90 days and should be something “extra”, that is, something not being done now. For example, a person might commit to “I will say grace before meals’ or I will say my nightly prayers” or “I will read a chapter in the Bible every day.” The purpose is for each parishioner to develop new habits. After 3 months the program is offered again for another 90 days asking for a different commitment from each parishioner.
(all 3 parishes received a 2015 McDevitt Grant)

Sacred Heart, Cicero 315-699-2752 email: sacredheart@syrdio.org
Has done the Extra Mile for 2 years. Their purpose is to strengthen habits and deepen parishioners understanding of religious practices. Four areas are being addressed in this second year: Eucharist, Learning, Outreach and Communication. Learning opportunities will be available in the form of workshops, Bible Studies, speakers, etc. The Outreach groups will initiate a Ministry Fair and New Parishioner Gatherings, while the Communication group will create a brochure of parish ministries and participation opportunities. (received a 2014 McDevitt Grant)

“Go to the Streets”

St. Daniel, Syracuse 315-454-4946 email: stdaniels@syrdio.org
During the summer a team will go out into the streets and contact a targeted group of people in their homes for evangelization and material help. These are families and individuals who have requested food, etc. from the parish pantry during the year. The parish has been giving these people material needs, but have not addressed their spiritual needs. 40 homes will be contacted: assess their conditions materially and spiritually, take the parish census, encourage Baptism/Confirmation where necessary, give information on marriage validation, facilitate the annulment process, respond to the needs of the homebound, etc.
(received a 2015 McDevitt Grant)

“To the Streets” Evangelization Program

St. James, Syracuse 315-469-7789 email: stjamesyr@syrdio.org
A process aimed at engaging and encouraging parishioners to be courageous enough to share their faith with others . . . neighbors, coworkers, family, friends, etc. At the same time it allowed people to carry out the mission of Pope Francis to bring the “Church to the Streets.” People were trained on how to go out and be missionaries of the New Evangelization and were equipped with the right information to begin to share the Gospel with others. Days were set up to go through the South Side of the city of Syracuse and engage people where they are at . . . their homes, businesses or on the street. (received a 2014 McDevitt Grant)

“Making Apostles Servants and following the Spirit” (M.A.S.S Appeal)

St. Francis Xavier, Marcellus 315-673-2531 email: stfrancismarc@syrdio.org
MASS Appeal was an outgrowth of the evangelization efforts in the parish from the previous year. It is designed to promote adult Catholic education, spirituality and outreach by: continuing the Sandwich Sunday program for the Catholic Charities Men’s Shelter, establishing a Scripture study program and working with the Spiritual Renewal Center on the ‘spiritual exercises of St. Ignatius Loyola’. (received a 2014 McDevitt Grant)

“Summer Evangelization Picnic”

Pope John XXIII, Liverpool 315-652-6591 email: johnxxiii@syrдио.org
A personal invitation was sent to all families in the area inviting them to a picnic on the church grounds. Activities included a Christian music band, games and food provided by the parish. There was a need to reach out more effectively to youth and young adults in the area and have them experience the goodness, faith and welcoming of the parish. (received a 2014 McDevitt Grant)

“Tully Community Fall Fest”

St. Leo, Tully 315-696-5092 email: conativity@syrдио.org
Right after Labor Day the parish hosts a community-wide picnic. Everyone in Tully is invited via mailings, fliers and other means of advertising. Becoming a more welcoming parish is one of their ongoing evangelization objectives. The parish hopes to inspire the return of CINOs (Catholics in Name Only). This annual picnic has become an important part of the parish reaching out to others. (received a 2015 McDevitt Grant)

C. MUSIC

“Evangelization Hymn”

“Arise and Evangelize” composed by Larry Hagan, Our Lady of Lourdes, Utica
315-797-4161 email: 10LHmusic@gmail.com

D. RESOURCES

“Catherine of Siena Institute”

www.siena.org
Dedicated to equipping parishes for the evangelization and formation of lay Catholics for their mission in this world. Provides innovative programs, resources and leadership training that are faithful to Church teaching and will enable a parish to become a dynamic center of lay discipleship.

“ChristLife”

www.christlife.org
(see above – ‘canned’ programs)

“Direction for Our Times Booklet Display”

Most Holy Rosary, Maine 607-862-3216 email: holyrosary@syrдио.org
A booklet display has been set up in the vestibule of the church where people can take home free booklets that help give direction on various subjects. Examples: information for those who worry about their financial situation and those who worry about the salvation of their children.
www.directionforourtimes.org

“Dynamic Catholic Book Program

St. Leo, Tully 315-696-5092 email: conativity@syrдио.org
A simple affordable way to re-engage disengaged Catholics and re-energize your parish. 500 copies or more for $2 per copy (including postage). 6 to 499 copies are $3 per copy. (received a 2015 McDevitt Grant)
www.dynamiccatholic.com

“Growing Faith”

Our Lady of Sorrows, Vestal 607-748-8287 email: olosvestal@syrдио.org
Offered 4 weeks during Advent and Lent. Program brings people together in small groups to discuss various topics related to Church teachings.

“Just Faith Ministries”

<http://justfaith.org/programs/goodnewspeople>
All Saints, Syracuse 315-479-0034 email: allsaints@syrдио.org
The New Evangelization is promoted through an engaging small-group process of prayer, reflection and action. It explores and deepens our call to discipleship. (received a 2014 McDevitt Grant)

“Landings”

St. James, Cazenovia 315-655-4871 email: stjamescaz@syrдио.org

A Paulist program for welcoming returning Catholics. Described as “a reconciliation process that helps faith communities welcome inactive Catholics who want to take another look at the Church.” The program is offered twice a year in conjunction with sacramental preparation classes which brings many parents to our doors, but does not often keep parents engaged until their children reach the age to be eligible for the next sacrament. (received a 2014 McDevitt Grant)

FAITH FORMATION

A. ADULT

“Adult Seminars”

Christ Our Light, Pulaski

315-298-5350

email: christourlight@syrdio.org

One and a half hour sessions for 6 weeks. These are discussion sessions, not Bible Study or adult religious education. The Ten Commandments has been a popular topic. There are several topics to choose from.

“Apologetics Adult Sessions”

Our Lady of Good Counsel, Verona, NY

315-363-7696

email: ologcverona@syrdio.org

Apologetics is simply the science of being able to give a reasonable explanation of Christian beliefs. The pastor held several monthly classes during 2013 – 2014 to help prepare parishioners to be able to freely discuss their faith.

“Bible Study Group”

St. Mary, Clinton 315-853-2935 email: stmarysclinton@syrdio.org
Members choose a Gospel book from the William Barclay series and read it at home. Every other week they meet at a member’s home. They read a chapter from the book and discuss what they have read.

“Book Club”

St. Francis of Assisi, Binghamton 607-722-4388 email: stfrancisbing@syrdio.org
Each week a group of parishioners gather for reflection and discussion of a common book being read. Books have a religious theme and help further understanding of their faith.

“Books for Discussion Groups”

“The Catholicism Answer Book” by Rev. John Trigilio
“Catholicism for Dummies” by Rev. John Trigilio
Both books are designed to answer common, confusing and controversial questions about the Catholic faith.

“On-Line Book Club”

Annunciation Church, Clark Mills 315-853-6138 email: annunciation@syrdio.org
To expand adult faith formation an on-line book club in blog format currently supports reading and sharing comments on “A Jesuit’s Guide to Almost Everything” by James Martin, SJ.

“Tuesday AM or PM Scripture Study”

Our Lady of Sorrows, Vestal 607-748-8287 email: olosvestal@syrdio.org
Meets weekly to discuss the Gospel reading for the upcoming week.

B. YOUTH

“Catechists Corner”

Accessible on the parish web site. Provides links to inspirational videos and other resources for catechists.

“Children’s Liturgy”

St. Mary, Clinton 315-853-2935 email: stmarysclinton@syrdio.org
Once a month a children’s liturgy and “class Mass” is held at the Saturday vigil with a potluck dinner following. Each month a different class will be responsible for the readings, gift bearers and altar servers.

“Catechists Weekly Emails”

St. Mary, Clinton 315-853-2935 email: stmarysclinton@syrdio.org
Catechists send weekly emails home so parents are able to reinforce what was discussed in class.

“Faith Formation Trifold”

Our Lady of Sorrows, Vestal 607-748-8287 email: olosvestal@syrdio.org
A handy guide to curriculum, classes, session offerings, philosophy and schedules.

“Family Based Catechesis”

St. Anthony, Endicott 607-754-4333 email: stanthendicott@syrdio.org
Parents and children meet together once a month at church going through a Faith Formation program together as a family. There are take home packets and family homework is assigned.

“Hands On” Religious Education and Confirmation

St. James, Syracuse 315-469-7789 email: stjamesyr@syrdio.org

The St. James Emmaus Ministry offers “hands on” service retreat programs focusing on faith, call to discipleship and Pope Francis’ directive. . . “Do not forget the poor.” Participants hear the witnessing of ministry volunteers, formerly homeless individuals, along with ways to bring the presence of Christ to the marginalized. “Hands On” projects include preparing a hot meal, assembling care packages and gift packages for the homeless and needy. Following Mass, participants go to a homeless shelter, an expansion housing site, an inner city youth program or various other venues to feed and serve those most in need.

“Implementing Whole Community Catechesis”

St. Helena, Sherrill 315-363-3882 email: sthelenas@syrdio.org
Addresses the need for life-long catechesis. Parish sacramental programs help engage the whole family encouraging them to work together by giving them a “question of the week” to discuss at home.

“Magnifikid”

St. Mary, Clinton 315-853-2935 email: stmarysclinton@syrdio.org
12 subscriptions of Magnifikid, a children’s guide to following and understanding Mass, are available for families to use. Subscriptions are offered at a reduced price for the first year through the parish.

C. SUMMER PROGRAMS

“Summer Bible School”

St. Patrick/St. Anthony, Chadwicks 315-507-2528 email: stanthchadwicks@syrdio.org
The parish will host a two week summer Bible program for children ages 7 – 12 with a concentration on Bible themes with time spent on classes with instruction, arts/crafts and creative prayer designed by the children. (Received a 2015 McDevitt Grant)

“Summer Religious Education Program”

St. Augustine, Baldwinsville 315-638-0585 email: staugustine@syrdio.org
An innovative summer program open for students in grades 6 through 10. The students have an intensified week-long program that replaces the fall semester at a time when families are often busy and also it makes it easier to get teachers to teach for one week in the summer rather than for a whole semester. This is something a parish might want to try to work out with neighboring parishes.

“Summer Time Story Hour”

St. Mary, Clinton 315-853-2935 email: stmarysclinton@syrdio.org
Once a week 3-7 year olds meet for faith based stories and crafts.

“Summer Vacation Program”

St. Lucy, Syracuse 315-475-7273 email: stlucys@syrdio.org
Program for children 4 to 10 years old is held 2 days a week for 4 weeks in the summer. It includes stories, crafts, learning activities and games.

“Vacation Bible School”

St. Francis of Assisi, Binghamton 607-722-4388 email: stfrancisbing@syrdio.org
This is an interdenominational Bible Study for grades K-6 in the summer. The focus is on common Bible themes. Three neighborhood churches rotate the location each year and share teachers and support personnel. Parishioners from each church donate supplies and refreshments.

“Vacation Bible School”

Holy Trinity, Utica 315-724-7238 email: holytrinityutica@syrdio.org
This is held for children kindergarten through 6th. grade every July with a different biblical theme each year.

“Vacation Bible School”

Holy Trinity, Fulton 315-598-2118 email: holytrinityfulton@syrdio.org

Children are asked to join in at hometown Nazareth and explore what life was like when Jesus was a child. Craft projects are made in the Market Place. Bible-time games are played. They visit with “Jesus” mom and eat foods like ones Jesus ate.

“Vacation Bible School”

Holy Trinity, Utica 315-724-7238 email: holytrinityutica@syrdio.org
This is held for children kindergarten through 6th. grade every July with different biblical theme each year.

St. Peter/St. Mary, Rome 315-336-5072 email: stpetersrome@syrdio.org
A Vacation Bible School is held in the last week of July for Pre-K through grade 4. Older students are invited to come back and help.

FAMILY

“Family Faith Events”

St. Augustine, Baldwinsville 315-638-0585 email: staugustine@syrdio.org
The parish plans to have 3 Family (intergenerational) Faith Events during the year. These experiences will provide an opportunity for faith enrichment for the youth and adults who attend and reach out beyond the currently enrolled parishioners and invite others from the neighborhood to join in. Activities will be publicized via print, website and social media. There will be one off-site event and transportation will be provided. There will be the opportunity for feedback, both written and verbal. (received a 2015 McDevitt Grant)

“Grandparents’ Day Celebration”

Our Lady of Peace, Solvay 315-488-3221 email: olopeacesyracuse@syrdio.org
Parish picks a special Sunday to invite grandparents to attend Mass with them. With so many parents working or situations of separation/divorce the role of Catholic grandparents has taken on a whole new dimension. Grandparents have become the agents of the New Evangelization, encouraging the youth by their example and their love of God.

“Parish Mission on Family Life”

Most Holy Rosary, Syracuse 315-478-5749 email: mhrysyracuse@syrdio.org
The parish will have guest speaker(s) with a shared meal and activities that promote family life values and allow interaction within the generations and members of the parish and beyond.
(received a 2015 McDevitt Grant)

“Parish Quilt”

St. Patrick, Otisco 315-492-0814 email: stpatsotisco@syrdio.org
Parish prepared two hanging quilts made of squares representing each family. The families developed their own square and all were stitched together and then hung from the choir loft.

FUND RAISING

“Annual Sweepstakes”

“St. Peter/St. Mary, Rome 315-336-5072 email: stpetersrome@syrdio.org
The parishes hold an annual sweepstakes. Tickets are $20 each. The drawing is held at the annual family picnic in early September. The proceeds from the Sweepstakes are used to fund various social activities for the parishes.

Holy Trinity, Fulton 315-598-2118 email: holytrinityfulton@syrdio.org
St. Joseph/St. Patrick, Utica 315-735-4429 email: stjoespats@syrdio.org
Theme baskets, golfing, baby items, lottery tickets, gardening tools, candy, etc., are donated by parishioners. People purchase tickets and deposit them in a container in front of the baskets of their choice. The winning ticket in the container wins the basket. Can be used as part of a parish festival, dinner or any special gathering.

“Fr. Scardella’s Challenge Walk”

St. Mary, Baldwinsville 315-635-3977 email: pastor@stmarysassumption.org
To help defray a budget gap, Father agreed to walk from his elementary school, St. Mary’s in Fulton, to his present parish school, St. Mary’s in Baldwinsville. Over $43,000 was pledged for the 14 mile walk.

“HOPE Appeal”

One pastor uses a visual to show the progress during the appeal. A large sunflower is put on a wall and as the parish contributions reach certain levels leaves on the sunflower are colored in with the amount collected to that point written on that leaf. When the goal is reached the flower itself is colored in.

“20 Week Club/Catholic School Tuition Assistance”

Holy Trinity, Utica 315-724-7238 email: holytrinityutica@syrdio.org
Tickets include a drawing for $2,000 in prizes and a great fellowship dinner. Many of our young parishioner’s families have benefitted from this Catholic School tuition assistance.

“St. Pauly Receptacles”

Our Lady of Lourdes, Utica 315-724-3155 email: ololutica@syrdio.org
Used clothing is dropped off and collected for needy in other countries. The Parish receives money for participating. www.stpaulytextile.com

“Memory Path”

Holy Trinity, Fulton 315-598-2118 email: holytrinityfulton@syrdio.org
A garden was created next to the church with Our Lady of Fatima as the centerpiece. It is a place of prayer and photographs for special occasions. One of the garden paths is called “the memory walk.” Bricks are sold and engraved to memorialize a person or a special occasion.

50/50 Raffle”

Our Lady of Peace, Lakeland 315-487-6832 email: olopeacesyracuse@syrdio.org
An annual parish 50/50 raffle where over 300 tickets are sold at $50.00 each. Half of the money is given as prize money and the other half goes toward heating and snow removal costs at the parish. There is a free dinner after the Saturday evening Mass when the winners’ names are drawn. The dinner is always designed around a theme - St. Patrick’s Day, Valentine’s Day, Year of the Priest, etc. Dinner expenses for the parish run around $250. The church receives over $7,700.

“Pierogi and Golumbki Sales”

Holy Trinity, Utica 315-724-7238 email: holytrinityutica@syrdio.org
A nice friendly group of parishioners prepare amazing numbers of homemade pierogi and golumbki for church functions and for sale to the public.

“St. Anthony Feast Day”

St. Anthony of Padua, Endicott 607-754-4333 email: stanthendicott@syrdio.org
A 3 day celebration centering around the June 13 feast day that attracts thousands of people from all over the country. Chairs and tables have to be set up in the street to accommodate all the people. Booths with various Italian foods bring in around $170,000 for the 3 days.

“Silent Auction”

St. James, Cazenovia 315-697-7104 email: stjamescaz@syrdio.org
Parishioners donate and solicit area merchants for items to have at a very well attended silent auction.

PARISH PASTORAL COUNCILS

“District Representatives”

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, Baldwinsville 315-652-4300 email: stelizabeth@syrдио.org
The parish has been divided into 6 districts - each with a district representative who sits on the pastoral council. Each representative makes 6 telephone calls to parishioners in his/her district every other month soliciting comments and suggestions which are reported back to the pastoral council. Also they make welcome calls to new parishioners.

“Leadership Committee”

St. Margaret, Homer 607-749-2542 email: stmarghomer@syrдио.org
Every other month the chairperson of a committee/program is invited to meet with the parish pastoral council for the first hour. Then the council breaks off for their monthly meeting and the committees can also choose to meet that night. As a leadership group they have selected specific themes for both the parish pastoral council and the various committees to work on at the same time.

“Youth Representatives”

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, Baldwinsville 315-652-4300 email: stelizabeth@syrдио.org
Two of the youth (11th and 12th graders) sit on the pastoral council. They provide direct input from the youth of the parish. This has been a very productive tool in the development of the youth programs.

“Sister Community in Nicaragua”

St. Lucy, Syracuse 315-475-7273 email: stlucys@syrdio.org
For almost 25 years, St Andrews and then St. Lucy’s and All Saints parishes have maintained a relationship with a health promotion project in Villanueva, Nicaragua. The parishes provide funds and some administrative assistance to maintain a network of approximately 150 volunteer health promoters in a rural and impoverished part of Nicaragua. The parish also send delegations to the project once every two years to deepen the friendship among the three entities.

“Tohatchi, NM Franciscan Navajo Mission”

St. Mary, Hamilton 315-824-2164 email: stmaryshamilton@syrdio.org
The parish has adopted St. Mary Mission of Tohatchi, NM as a sister parish. There is a special monthly collection for them. Also, they ship school supplies for the children. By sending actual items, rather than always money, they hope for a “teaching moment.” At Christmas many large boxes of toys and clothes are sent. The Altar and Rosary Society ladies knitted lap robes for the elderly. On the pastor’s anniversary they collected and gave a large sum of money to the Mission as their gift to him. Two of their parishioners have visited Tohatchi.

PLANNING

“Youth Team”

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, Baldwinsville. 315-652-4300 email: stelizabeth@syrdio.org
The pastor, youth minister, DRE, CYO director and two students meet every two months for a two hour period. The YM sets an agenda on topics to discuss. It is good to have this team brainstorm, communicate and develop programs.

“Veterans Day Memorial Service”

St. Peter/St. Mary, Rome 315-336-5072 email: stpetersrome@syrдио.org
The parishes sponsor a city wide memorial service, honoring loved ones who have passed away in the past year. The local funeral homes are contacted requesting the names and their branch of service. The names are placed on a label with the emblem of their branch of service and on a red candle. The red candles are placed on the main altar in perfect formation. The service has a particular theme every year (Korean War, Vietnam War etc). The public is also solicited to purchase a white candle in honor or in memory of their loved one. These candles also have their name, in Memory of or in Honor of, and the branch of service emblem. These candles are lined up on the altar railing. All the candles, red and white, are given to the respective families after the service.

TRANSPORTATION

“Call-A-Bus”- Many of our senior parishioners may qualify for Call-A-Bus services for transportation to attend Mass and other parish activities. Cost varies from city to city but is generally $2.50 each way. Most buses can accommodate a wheelchair. Those who qualify may take a caretaker along without an extra charge. B. ACTIVITIES

“Annual Welcome Mass”

Annunciation Church, Clark Mills 315-853-6138 email:
annunciation@syrдио.org

Once a year the parish has a Mass to welcome newcomers including those baptized, married, or newly registered in the last year. The Confirmation candidates are welcomed this weekend as well during a "Presentation of Candidates" where they receive a hard copy of Catholic Youth Bible.

"Children's Activity Bags"

St. Mary, Clinton 315-853-2935 email:
stmarysclinton@syrдио.org

Children's activity bags are hung in the back of the church. Families are able to borrow a bag during Mass. The bags are equipped with appropriate books, coloring books and crayons.

"Coffee Hour to Welcome New Parishioners"

St. Mary, Cortland 607-756-9967 email:
stanthcortland@syrдио.org

When new parishioners register they are given a packet of information and an invitation to attend a bi-annual coffee hour dedicated to welcoming new members. Name tags are provided and the social committee makes a special effort to introduce them to others.

"Judy's Café"

St. Anthony of Padua, Endicott 607-754-4333 email:
stanthendicott@syrдио.org

Meeting place for youth and/or adults after daily morning Mass. Café is on the first floor providing coffee, soda, and pastries. Upstairs is a living room setting with TV, sofa, chairs, etc. Prayer shawl ministry and other groups meet there for coffee and refreshments. Parishioners donate homemade Italian pastries for sale.

"Neighborhood Walks"

St. Lucy, Syracuse 315-475-7273 email:
stlucys@syrдио.org

Walk in the neighborhood to greet the residents and offer information about St. Lucy's or just to visit.

"Socials after 10:30 Mass"

St. Mary, Clinton 315-853-2935 email:
stmarysclinton@syrдио.org

Socials after 10:30 Mass sponsored by different groups of the parish. One summer they held "Lemonade on the Lawn". This was organized on the lawn of the church, so that people would stop and socialize immediately following Mass. Nothing fancy, just lemonade and cookies or pretzels.

"Welcome Committee"

Our Lady of Sorrows, Vestal 607-748-8287 email:
olosvestal@syrдио.org

A small team makes home visits to new parishioners. This informal welcoming arrangement provides information about parish activities as well as an opportunity to gather information concerning the sacramental status of the family. If necessary, this is a perfect time to offer information concerning the annulment process or having children baptized, confirmed, etc.

"Welcoming and Gathering the Assembly"

St. Lawrence, DeRuyter 607-849-3857 email:
stpatstruxton@syrдио.org

In this small parish people are welcomed and gathered for worship at every weekend Mass. At the end of Mass special announcements are made about upcoming birthdays, anniversaries, baptisms, etc.

“Parish Connections Committee”

St. Joseph the Worker, Liverpool 315-457-6060 email:
stjoesliverpool@syrдио.org

The goal of this committee is to keep parishioners informed and connected, with each other and the community. Parishioners participate in the following areas: Greeters, Welcoming Outreach (which welcomes new parishioners with phone calls and notes), Foyer Groups (small dinner party gatherings that allow parishioners to socialize and get to know each other) and a Writing Team (parishioners contribute articles on people and activities in the parish).

C. DEAF/HEARING DEFICIENCIES

“Hearing Impaired”

St. Joseph, Oswego 315-343-2160 email:
stjoesoswego@syrдио.org

The parish has purchased 4 body-pack receivers with mini-earphones for people who are hearing impaired. Also, they purchased 2 neck loops which are for people who already have hearing aids. The neck loops are equipped with a t-switch that is programmed to work with their personal hearing aid. There is a dedicated feed from the main sound system and the receivers can be adjusted for level of sound. Both have been quite useful and people are pleased with the quality of sound.

D. SENIORS

“St. Bernadette Bistro”

St. Mary, Cleveland 315-675-3542 email:
stmaryscleveland@syrдио.org

This is a senior citizen program sponsored by Oswego County Opportunities. The parish provides the facility so that seniors can meet Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays for a variety of activities including games, Lights on the Lake at Christmas, etc. Once a week a community bus takes them grocery shopping. The parish senses the importance of being welcoming to all people in their small community. In addition to opening their facility to the seniors, St. Mary in Cleveland hosts a Head Start program.

YOUTH

A. ACTIVITIES/RECREATION

“Card Making for the Homebound”

St. Joseph, Endicott 607-748-0422 email:
stjoesendicott@syrдио.org
Youth program reaching out to those who are sick and homebound.

“Brady Faith Center Partnership”

Christ the King, Liverpool 315-652-9266 email:
christtheking@syrдио.org
The parish youth partners with the Brady Faith Center 4 times a year. On 2 occasions the parish transported Brady Faith Center children to Christ the King where their ninth graders provided a four hour activity period with games, crafts, lunch and a prayer service. On the other 2 occasions the ninth graders were transported to the Brady Center for activities. (received a 2014 McDevitt Grant)

“Building Friendships and Faith with Fun”

St. Anthony/St. Mary, Cortland 607-756-9967 email:
stanthcortland@syrдио.org
Youth group gathers monthly for a diocesan or parish event, a small group activity or a planned activity such as a movie or game night. As with any student event - FOOD is always involved.

“Care Packages for College Students”

Blessed Sacrament, Syracuse 315-437-3394 email:
blschurch@syrдио.org
Send Halloween and Easter care packages with cards from the elementary students to the parish college students.

“Children’s Envelopes” (from outside the diocese) Contact person: Msgr. James Lang. 315-422-7203. Children’s envelopes where on the front the child completes the following:

This week I prayed for _____(time)
This week I helped _____(talent)
My contribution this week is _____(treasure)

A volunteer counts the money each week and keeps it until the end of the year. Then it is presented to the finance council for suggestions as to how this money could be used for the parish. The children’s total yearly offering might provide the communion hosts for the coming year for all the Masses and communion calls to shut-ins, etc. or maybe the cost of candles. A notice is put in the bulletin to inform parishioners as to how the money was used. Interesting - the adult contributions seem to increase after that! Also, information gathered from the first 2 statements helped identify some problems/issues for outreach staff to deal with.

“Chow Walk”

Our Lady of Sorrows, Vestal 607-748-8287 email:
olosvestal@syrдио.org
Annual service event attended by all middle school students. Open to all families to help raise funds for CHOW (Community Hungry Outreach Warehouse) and awareness of the need to feed the hungry.

“Connection 690”
St. Augustine, Baldwinsville 315-638-0585 email:
staugustine@syrдио.org
A program that will allow youth from St. Augustine’s parish at one point on Interstate 690 and of a suburban culture, to develop sustained relationships with youth at St. Vincent de Paul parish at another point on Interstate 690 and an economically/culturally different environment due to its large population of refugees. The exposure to others from a different socio-economic culture will allow the youth from both parishes to have a direct experience of the teaching of the Church. (Received a 2015 McDevitt Grant)

“Graduation Time”
St. Anne, Mother of Mary, Mexico 315-963-7255 email:
lbuckley@syrдио.org
A graduation Mass for seniors followed by a brunch for the graduates and their families.

“Friday Youth Nights”
St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, Baldwinsville 315-652-4300 email:
stelizabeth@syrдио.org
These Friday night events alternate between movie nights and Coffee House (performers, etc.) allowing the youth to have some type of entertainment ongoing each week.

“Hands On”
St. James, Syracuse 315-469-7789 email:
stjamessyr@syrдио.org
Faith Formation and Confirmation Service Retreat Programs which offer “hands on” service focusing on our faith and our call to discipleship. Participants hear the witnessing of ministry volunteers, formerly homeless individuals along with ways to bring the presence of Christ to the marginalized. “Hands On” projects include preparing a hot meal, assembling care packages and gift packs for the homeless and needy. Following Mass, participants go to a homeless shelter, an expansion housing site, an inner city youth program or various other venues to feed and serve those most in need.

“Life Teen”
Holy Family, Syracuse 315-488-3139 email:
holyfamilyfairmount@syrдио.org
There are about 100 students in the program. At a 4:00 Sunday youth Mass there are youth ministers and a youth band. After Mass there is a Life Teen meeting in which the pastor participates. Some of their activities include: Washington, DC Pro-Life March, NET Retreats and Steubenville Summer Conference.

“Justice Walking”
All Saints, Syracuse 315-479-9934 email:
allsaints@syrдио.org

Justice Walking (purchased from ‘Just Faith Programs’) for our youth helped them become involved with the needs of those around them and to see the many faces of Jesus in their community.

(received a 2014 McDevitt Grant)

“Mission to Youth”

St. Elizabeth Ann Seton, Baldwinsville 315-652-4300 email:
stelizabeth@syrдио.org

Mission Statement: “To bring kids closer to Christ and His Church!” They use weekly Youth bulletin inserts, Youth Masses, Facebook, Friday night movies and Karaoke, Coffee Houses, skiing, snow-boarding, ice skating, bowling and a whole bunch of dedicated adults and prayer to achieve their mission.

“Notre Dame Vision Program”

St. Leo, Tully 315-696-5092 email:
conativity@syrдио.org

A program specially for high school students that takes place on the campus of Notre Dame University. It consists of 9 conference sessions over a period of 5 days. The program strives to introduce young people to the Christian notion of the “universal call to holiness.” Cost for the conference and transportation is about $600 per person. (received a 2015 McDevitt Grant)

“Operation Youth Evangelization 2”

St. Malachy, Sherburne 607-674-9625 email:
stmalachysherburne@gmail.com

Received a 2013 McDevitt Grant to begin a youth group by scheduling activities every week. Participation has grown. Opportunities were given through events such as a week long bike tour where community service was intertwined with camping and praying together. Through this grant money some of the youth were able to attend their first Steubenville Youth Conference. The parish would like to expand the program this year. (received a 2014 McDevitt Grant)

“PLUNGE Mission Trips”

Immaculate Conception, Fayetteville 315-637-9846 email:
hsyouth@icfayetteville.org

The parish sponsors PLUNGE mission trips every year, including a local and an out of town trip. The local trip this year will be an outreach one through the Brady Faith Center to many inner city organizations. The summer out of town trip is planned for Washington, DC working throughout the city doing various projects. The trips are well planned and organized. They are partially funded by the parish, McDevitt Grants and several fund raising events. (received a 2015 McDevitt Grant)

“Movie Night”

Blessed Sacrament, Syracuse 315-437-3394 email:
blschurch@syrдио.org

Once a month weekend night. Admission is a non-perishable food item for the food pantry. Popcorn, soda and etc. available.

“Ropes Courses and Retreat Day”

Most Holy Rosary, Syracuse 315-478-5749 email:
mhrsyrдио@syrдио.org

Junior and senior high students will participate locally at Ropes Courses and spend a full day at a local retreat center. The exercises at the Ropes Courses and the retreat day challenge each individual, in very different ways, to share their faith with one another, to grow in their own faith and to become more confident in that faith. (received a 2014 McDevitt Grant)

“Rescue Mission Helpers”

St. Peter/St. Mary, Rome 315-336-5072 email:
stpetersrome@syrдио.org

Faith Formation students prepare a meal at home or at the church and serve it at the Rescue Mission. All grades are encouraged to bring in food weekly to help “In Mission of the Christ Child” food pantry at our parish.

“Snacks and Supervision”

Our Lady of Sorrows, Vestal 607-748-8287 email:
olosvestal@syrдио.org

A social program offered prior to weekday elementary faith formation classes where children are supervised in a safe setting. Students have a chance to snack and socialize with their friends and peers.

“Teens Gathered in Faith” (TGIF)

St. Mary, Clinton 315-853-2935 email:
stmarysclinton@syrдио.org

TGIF is an initiative structured to facilitate the spiritual growth of students in grades 9-12. The group setting enables the participants to work in the support of each other in their religious beliefs and aid in the development of friendships within their peer group while reaching out to others in the community in need. These objectives are met through bi/weekly meetings with games, food and religious discussion. Once a month families are invited to participate in a family volleyball game. Members have planted a vegetable garden to benefit a feeding program in nearby Utica and have prepared and served meals at a Utica men’s shelter. Group trips have included planning and participating in team building overnight camping trips at the Oswegatchie outdoors center and Christ the King Retreat Center, Greenwich, NY. Plans are being made to begin a mentoring program utilizing past confirmation teens to work with middle school children grades 6-8.

“Week Long Mission Trip”

St. Stephen/St. Patrick, Whitney Point 607-692-3911 email:
ststephenstpartick@syrдио.org

For the past several years students if grades 8 through college have gone with the Catholic Heart Work camp organization. The week long experience teaches the youth about helping those less fortunate. During the trip they will experience everything from cleaning up grounds, painting and general cleaning. Easy to replicate This project takes a lot of fund raising but worth the effort when one sees the impact it has on the youth. (received a 2015 McDevitt Grant)

“Youth Center”

St. John the Baptist/Transfiguration, Rome 315-337-0990 email:
stjohnsrome@syrдио.org

The goal of the youth center is to reach out to surrounding parishes to gather youth in grades 9 – 12 to continue learning about their faith after they have completed Faith Formation classes. They meet weekly and attend outside events as well as do community service. Bibles and YouCat books are available for those who attend. This is the beginning of gathering all youth in the PCA under one roof for food, games and fellowship. (received a 2015 McDevitt Grant)

“Youth Ministry Program”

Immaculate Conception, Greene 607-656-8418 email:
immcongrene@syrдио.org

With the help of a 2013 McDevitt Grant and a volunteer college student/parishioner the parish was able to start a monthly youth group. At the end of the year the group had 26 members from the middle and high schools. The parish now feels the need to be able to pay a part-time youth/young adult minister.

(received a 2014 McDevitt Grant)

“Youth Evangelization to Grow the Church and Change the World”

St. Mary, Baldwinsville

315-635-5762

email:

stmarysbbville@syrddio.org

The parish is expanding its newly developed Youth Program to include a Junior Youth Group (grades 3-6), Youth Group (grades 7 and 8) and Senior Youth Group (grades 9-12). They continue to work with the Diocesan Office of Youth Ministry for their training and continue to build upon that structure. The activities at all levels include speakers, catechesis, mission trips of service and Faith events like youth rallies. There are weekly, bi-weekly and monthly meetings for the various age levels run by parents and volunteers.

(received a 2013 and a 2015 McDevitt Grant)

“Youth Group Community Service”

Sts. John and Andrew, Binghamton

607-722-0493

email:

stsjohnandrew@syrddio.org

Began a Community Outreach Program hosting several community events focused on fellowship, service and learning. In the spring the youth group cleaned up the neighborhood area surrounding the church. Family movie nights were held where donations for the food pantry were accepted. Just before school begins there is a ‘Back to School Kick Off’ where a collection of school supplies are given to students in need. At Halloween, as an alternative to trick or treating, the parish hosts a neighborhood Halloween Party for the youth. At Christmas time donations of toys or baby items are collected for Mom’s House.

(received a 2014 McDevitt Grant)

“Youth Expansion”

Sts. John and Andrew, Binghamton

607-722-0493

email:

stsjohnandrew@syrddio.org

Will expand the youth program by adding a few more events that bring the community together such as: hosting a Night of Poverty Awareness allowing the youth to present their stories of witnessing homelessness and poverty; making games to represent the history of a saint and have the teenagers dress as saints and presenting a Living Nativity at Christmastime. Faith Formation students would be included in many of the youth group activities. All events have a driving charity attached. The parish is always collecting food supplies for the pantry, school supplies, etc. After each event the parish has found that it is extending its outreach to people in the community. (received a 2015 McDevitt Grant)

“Young Adult Evangelization Outreach”

Pope John XXIII, Liverpool

315-652-6591

email:

johnxxiii@syrddio.org

The program is to identify, establish contact with and attract young adults into fuller participation in the parish.

The need is clear by their absence or distance from the community. Activities include: identification through parish and family contacts, establishing a facebook page, regular contacts and sponsoring events and activities to attract them to the parish. (received a 2015 McDevitt Grant)

“Youth Night”

Holy Trinity, Utica

315-724-7238

email:

holyytrinityutica@syrddio.org

Young people join together for fun, games, prayer, treats and crafts once a month.

“Youth Picnic”

Our Lady of Sorrows, Vestal 607-748-8287 email:

B. RETREATS/SERVICE

“Faith on Fire”

Our Lady of Sorrows, Vestal 607-748-8287
email:olosvestal@syrдио.org
A late August event where students celebrate a youth Mass, open gym and a huge bonfire to highlight the start of another faith-filled year.

“Nazareth Farm”

Blessed Sacrament, Syracuse 315-437-3394 email:
blschurch@syrдио.org
A group of high school students, with chaperones, raise money from movie nights, car washes, and donations to pay the expenses of renting a van, gas and staying at Nazareth Farm in West Virginia for a week in the summer. They work doing home repairs for the poor in that area. The kids get to know the families that live below the poverty level. When they return home they speak about their experience at the weekend Masses. It is a real experience for these students who have cell phones, iPods, etc. to work with families that have no running water, no indoor plumbing and no electricity.

“Peace Camp”

Our Lady of Sorrows, Vestal 607-748-8287 email:
olosvestal@syrдио.org
A week long summer program to teach skills in anger management, conflict resolution and peacemaking.

“Shoeboxes”

Our Lady of Sorrows, Vestal 607-748-8287 email:
olosvestal@syrдио.org
Jr/Sr high school students collect toiletries and personal care items. They create special gift boxes that are distributed through Catholic Charities to local teens in need.

“Speakers”

Our Lady of Sorrows, Vestal 607-748-8287 email:
olosvestal@syrдио.org
Each year a nationally known speaker or youth minister is invited to the area. Past speakers have included: Jesse Manibusan, Steve Angrisano, Tony Melendez, Frank Runyeon, Marc Friedman, Janet Voigh and the Matt Maher band.
